“FIRE TRUCK” SANTA TO VISIT THE SHOPPES AT ENGLISH VILLAGE
DECEMBER 18

Stanbery center to make donation to Horsham Fire Company

NORTH WALES, PA (December 15, 2010)—Santa Claus will take a break from sleigh riding to return to The Shoppes at English Village on Saturday, December 18, via a unique vehicle – a fire truck. While there, he’ll accept a check donation to the Horsham Fire Company from The Shoppes’ owner, Stanbery Development, in a special ceremony.

Santa will arrive on a fire truck from the Horsham Fire Company at 11 a.m., and will merrily stroll the center until 1 p.m. spreading holiday cheer.

“It’s always great to have Santa back at our center, and we’re delighted that Horsham is donating one of their firefighters to help Santa be everywhere at once,” said James Westfall, asset manager of Columbus, Ohio-based Stanbery. “Even more important, we’re happy to support the life-saving work of the Fire Company.”

The 104,500-square-foot Shoppes at English Village is located at 1460 Bethlehem Pike, at the northeast corner of S.R. 309 and S.R. 63, five miles north of the Pennsylvania Turnpike. Directions to the center can be found on The Shoppes’ website, www.theshoppesatenglishvillage.com.
