Executive of the Month NYC / PAGE 3B

Roland Dib, CEO, of DIB Development: A real estate developer branching out of Brooklyn

BROOKLYN, NY Roland Dib developed a passion for real estate early in life. He was a young teenager when he first started working in construction alongside his uncle. "I have always loved real estate and the value of it," said Dib, CEO of DIB Development, the growing real estate development company he founded in 1987 that focuses on property acquisition and development, construction, asset management and investment sales.

world. The women at the forefront of these noted dynasties will offer their views on their projects, their families and the industry at the next NYCREW Industry Spotlight: The Women Leading New York’s Real Estate Families, to be held October 3rd from 6 to 8 p.m. at the McGraw-Hill Executive Dining Room, 50th Floor, 1221 Avenue of the Americas.

Samantha Earls, VP of Rudin Management Company, Amy Rose, co-president of Rose Associates, and Shari Rossi, executive director and partner of Goodstein Organization LLC, will join moderator Faith Hope Consolo, chairman of Douglas Elliman’s Retail Group, in a discussion of the state of the industry, and how they are evolving their companies to deal with current challenges and opportunities.

“Over the years, I’ve been privileged to moderate a number of panels that include the ‘next generation’ of our industry, and this lineup is one of the most impressive I’ve ever seen! These women not only are leaders in their families and companies but also in their communities through their exciting new projects,” said Consolo.

clients. A 37-year veteran of the Port Authority of N.Y. & N.J., Baer was the first person in agency history to manage all of the major Port Authority airports. She was appointed general manager of LaGuardia Airport in 1994, general manager of New Jersey Airports (Newark and Teterboro) in 1998, and general manager of Kennedy Airport in 2007. She was named deputy director/chief operating officer of the Aviation Department in 2008 and became director of aviation in 2009, managing a five airport system.

Wind returns to GeoData Plus as president

MELVILLE, NY Erik Wind has returned to GeoData Plus as president. Wind held a leadership role with the company during GeoData’s formative years, when they re-
